NOTICE TO APPLICANTS

This is notice to you as required by the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 that certain Government Agencies have a right of access to financial records held by a financial institution in connection with the consideration or administration of assistance to you. Financial records involving your transaction will be available to such Agencies without further notice or authorization, but will not be disclosed or released to another Governmental Agency or Department without your consent except as required or permitted by law. Further, any further holder of your note will have the same right of access to your financial records as does Integral Mortgage Company.

MORTGAGE LOAN ORIGINATION AGREEMENT

You agree to enter into this Mortgage Loan Origination Agreement with Integral Mortgage Company as an independent contractor to apply for a residential mortgage loan from a participating lender with which we from time to time contract upon such terms and conditions as you may request or a lender may require. Integral Mortgage Company is licensed and registered as a “Mortgage Broker/Lender” under the laws of the State of Maryland and State of Virginia. The lenders have asked that this form be furnished to you to clarify the role of mortgage brokers. This form supplements other disclosures or agreements required by law that you should receive from the mortgage broker concerning your application.

SECTION 1. NATURE OF RELATIONSHIP. In connection with this mortgage loan:

- The mortgage broker may be acting as an independent contractor and not as your agent. If you are unsure of the nature of your relationship, please ask the mortgage broker for clarification.
- The mortgage broker has separate independent contract agreements with various lenders.
- While the mortgage broker seeks to assist you in meeting your financial needs, it does not distribute the products of all lenders or investors in the market and cannot guarantee the lowest price or best terms available in the market.

SECTION 2. BROKER COMPENSATION. Lenders generally provide their loan products to the mortgage broker at a wholesale rate.

- The retail price a mortgage broker offers you —your interest rate, total points and fees —will include the broker’s compensation. Such compensation will be _____% of your loan amount, plus a processing fee of $395 and an administration fee of $230.
- In some cases, the mortgage broker may be paid all of its compensation either by you, or by the lender.
- Alternatively, both you and the lender may pay the mortgage broker a portion of its compensation. For example, in some cases, if you would rather pay a lower interest rate, you may pay higher up-front points and fees.
- In other cases, if you would rather pay lower up-front points and fees, you may wish to have some or all of the broker’s fees paid directly by the lender. This will result in a higher interest rate on your loan and higher monthly loan payments that you would otherwise be required to pay.
- The mortgage broker also may be paid by the lender based on (i) the value of the mortgage loan or related servicing rights in the market place, or (ii) other services, goods or facilities performed or provided by the mortgage broker to the lender.
- The amount of fees and charges that you pay in the connection with your loan, including broker compensation, will be estimated on your Good Faith Estimate and the final amounts will be disclosed on your HUD-1 or HUD-A Settlement Statement.
- We work with a number of investors; however, we do not represent all lenders in the marketplace. We believe we have found for you the best available interest rate and terms for your financial needs; however, you are free to seek a loan without our assistance.

FLOAT/LOCK-IN AGREEMENT

I/We do not wish to lock-in an interest rate at this time. I/We understand I/We may at my/our sole discretion lock-in an interest rate and points at Lender's then prevailing rate and points at any time prior to seven (7) days before loan closing by notifying my/our Integral Mortgage Company representative of my/our decision to lock-in an interest rate and points.

I/We understand that the above program, interest rate, term of mortgage, and points, (all to be known further as "Terms") shall be in effect for the above designated number of calendar days from the date of this agreement. I/We understand that the Lender shall grant the above Terms of the loan to me/us if the loan is approved, closed, and all funds are fully disbursed within the lock period.

We have applied for a mortgage loan with the Lender. By signing the appropriate paragraph, I/We have selected one of the two options that Integral Mortgage Company offers for my/our interest rate and points. I/We understand that this selection is irrevocable.

I/We understand that once the rate and points are locked-in they cannot be reduced for any reason whatsoever. I/we understand that the origination fee is not a fee to procure a certain interest rate. I/We understand that the origination fee becomes the obligation of the borrower and is earned at approval and due at the loan closing.

I/We understand that if the closing, for any reason whatsoever, will occur in excess of 90 days from the date of the borrowers initial application, additional loan data will be required. If the new loan data is substantially different from that given during the initial application process, in the sole opinion of the underwriter, the loan approval may be voided.

If the purpose of the mortgage loan described in this agreement is the refinancing of an existing mortgage, I/We understand that Federal Law requires Lender to grant me/us a recession period that ends midnight of the third business day following the day of closing (Saturdays count as business days in this case, but cannot be the last day of the recession period). During the recession period, I/We in my/our own discretion may rescind the mortgage transaction. I/We further understand that the loan proceeds cannot be disbursed until the recession period expires. Therefore, it is possible that my/our lock-in will expire during the recession period and before the loan proceeds are disbursed. I/We understand that if this should occur then I/We in my/our sole discretion will close the loan at the Lender's then prevailing rate and points which in any event shall not be lower than the rate and points originally locked-in. I/We further understand that I/We may not qualify for the loan at a higher rate and points and therefore, the commitment to make the loan shall be null and void.

By signing below, you acknowledge the receipt of a copy of this agreement, and agree to all terms of this agreement.

LOAN SERVICE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

NOTICE TO MORTGAGE LOAN APPLICANTS. THE RIGHT TO COLLECT YOUR MORTGAGE LOAN PAYMENTS MAY BE TRANSFERRED. FEDERAL LAW GIVES YOU CERTAIN RELATED RIGHTS. READ THIS STATEMENT AND SIGN IT ONLY IF YOU UNDERSTAND ITS CONTENTS.

Because you are applying for a mortgage loan covered by the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA)(12 U.S.C. §2601 et seq.) you have certain rights under that federal law.

This statement tells you about those rights. It also tells you what the chances are that the servicing for this loan may be transferred to a different loan servicer. "Servicing" refers to collecting your principal, interest, and escrow account payments, it any. If you loan servicer changes, there are certain procedures that must be followed. This statement generally explains those procedures.

Transfer Practices and Requirement

If the servicing of your loan is assigned, sold, or transferred to a new servicer, you must be given written notice of that transfer. The present loan servicer must send you notice in writing of the assignment, sale or transfer of the servicing not less than 15 days before the effective date of the transfer. The new loan servicer must also send you notice within 15 days after the effective date of the transfer. The present servicer and the new servicer may combine this information in one notice, so long as the notice is sent to you 15 days before the effective date of transfer. The 15-day period is not applicable if a notice of prospective transfer is provided to you at settlement. The law allows a delay in the time (not more than 30 days after a transfer) for servicers to notify you, upon the occurrence of certain business emergencies. This exception applies only if your servicer is fired for cause, is in bankruptcy proceedings, or is involved in a conservatorship or receivership initiated by Federal agency.

Notices must contain certain information. They must contain the effective date of the transfer of the servicing of your loan to the new servicer, and the name, address, and toll-free or collect call telephone number of the new servicer, and toll-free or collect call telephone numbers of a person or department for both your present servicer and your new servicer to answer you questions. During the 60 day period following the effective date of the transfer of the loan servicing, a loan payment received by your old servicer before its due date may not be treated by the new loan servicer as late, and a late fee may not be imposed on you.

Complaint Resolution

Section 6 of RESPA (12 U.S.C. §2605) gives you certain consumer rights, whether or not your loan servicing is transferred. If you send a "qualified written request" to your servicer, your servicer must provide you with a written acknowledgment within 20 business days of receipt of your request. A "qualified written request" is a written correspondence, other than notice on a payment coupon or other payment medium supplied by the servicer, which includes your name and account number, and the information regarding your request. Not later than 60 business days after receiving your request, you servicer must make any appropriate corrections to your account, or must provide you with a written clarification regarding any dispute. During this 60 business day period, your servicer may not provide information to a consumer reporting agency concerning any overdue payment related to such period or qualified written request.

A business day is any day in which the offices of the business entity are open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its business functions.

Damages and Costs

Section 6 of RESPA also provides for damages and costs for individuals or classes of individuals in circumstances where servicers are shown to have violated the requirements of that section.

Servicing Transfer Estimates by Original Lender

The following is the best estimate of what will happen on the servicing of you mortgage loan:

- 1. ___ We do not service mortgage loans. We presently intent to assign, sell or transfer the servicing of your loan to another party. You will be notified at settlement regarding the servicer.
OR
2. ___ We are able to service your loan and presently intend to do so while the loan is outstanding. However, that may change in the future. For all mortgage loans that we make in the 12 month period after you loan is funded, we estimate that the percentage of such loans for which we will transfer the servicing is between:
___ 0 to 25% ___ 51 to 75%
___ 26 to 50% X 76 to 100%

This is only our best estimate and it is not binding. Business conditions or other circumstances may affect our future transferring decisions.

- 3. This is our record of transferring the servicing of the mortgage loan we have made in the past (rounded to the nearest quartile - 0%, 25%, 50%, 75%, 100%):

The estimates in 2 and 3 above do not include transfers to affiliates or subsidiaries. If the servicing of your loan is transferred to an affiliate or subsidiary in the future, you will be notified in accordance with RESPA.
